by a vote of 49 to 16.

The entire naval appropriation bill would have passed to-day but for Senator La Follette of Wisconsin, who has several amendments limiting the programme and in other ways restricting the use of the navy.

The closing hours of the debate today were enlivened by a speech from the Benator from Wisconsin which will linger long in the memories of Senators who heard him.

Senator made a characteristic at The Senator made a characteristic attack on business and the great daily newspapers. He declared that the great newspapers of the country had purposely refused to print the bill of army officers and navy officers before Congressional committees that tended to show the country to be prepared by show the country to be prepared, but exploited with great headlines anything that was designed to frighten the people into voting large appropriations for NEWBURGH, N. Y., July 19 .- Bearing a warrant charging Count Lynar-Loudin with forgery in the first degree, Roundsman William H. Tuthill of the local police force left here this morning to serve it on the Count or leave it with the authorities at the penitentiary at Blackwell's Island, where Lynar is serving an indeterminate sentence of from six months to three years for bigamy.

The warrant was issued on the affidavit of J. D. Lacey, a wealthy resident of New Windsor and Newburgh, charging Lynar secured from himself and others financial assistance in the incorporation of the Lynar Equipment Company, and later the leasing of a factory building of this city and the introduction the universal military equipment, which Lynar claimed was his patent.

To carry out his plans, Lacey says U. S. TO PROTEST Lynar presented a document which he claimed was an order from Austria-Hungary for the manufacture and delivery of 2,000,000 sets of equipment, for which the Government agreed to pay a royalty of six kroner for each equipment. This Lacey says he has learned was a forgery, and no such order was ever given.

Mr. Lacey will not state how great the
